New York City

Dear Mr. Davidson:

The other day Mr. Newell handed me the coins and medals belonging to the Gwynne M. Andrews Collection which the Metropolitan Museum has placed on loan to our Society. I note in your letter that you have photographs of these. If so, would it be possible for you to supply us with a set of these photographs? We should be glad to pay for them and this would save us the expense and trouble of photographing the pieces here.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
